SITE PLAN REVIEW BASICS

What is "Site Plan Review" and which types of development require it?

The purpose of the Site Plan Review Process is to review site plans for specific types of development to ensure the building permit process works more efficiently, and applications adhere to all appropriate Land Development Regulations (LDRs) and the Charlotte County Comprehensive Plan.

Types of developments required to undergo Site Plan Review:

- Multifamily Residential Developments
- All Nonresidential Developments
- Facilities, new or remodeled, which have a pickup window and/or drive-thru facility
- Any subdivision or new development located within the Surface Water Protection District as designated in the Comprehensive Plan
- Certain development proposals which the Zoning Official may require
- Site Plans associated with Special Exceptions and/or Variances
- Planned Developments (PDs)

(* Additional Board of County Commissioners (BCC) reviews required for all Planned Development petitions)
